

CVLSC Safeguarding Policy (Children)

Policy Statement

CVLSC aims to enable children and young people to enjoy the sport of sailing in a safe and welcoming environment.

CVLSC is committed to safeguarding, from physical, sexual or emotional harm, neglect or bullying, children taking part in its activities. We recognise that the safety, welfare and needs of the child are paramount and that all children, irrespective of age, disability, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual or gender identity or social status, have a right to protection from discrimination and abuse.

CVLSC takes all reasonable steps to ensure that, by providing volunteers with appropriate procedures and training, it offers a safe environment for all participants. Everyone will be treated with dignity and respect.

CVLSC recognises that safeguarding children is the responsibility of everyone, not just those who work directly with them.

For the purposes of this policy anyone under the age of 18 should be considered as a child. All members of the Club should be aware of the policy.

Club Welfare Officer

The Club Welfare Officer is:

John Smalley	president@chewvalleysailing.org.uk	07817 025139
Helen Martin	helen.martin@sandsfoothouse.co.uk	07711 160790

Volunteers

Volunteers in regular contact with young people are members of the club or parents. Activities are carried out in groups. All instructors, the Youth Coordinator and youth fleet captains are expected to complete a self-declaration form which is held by the Welfare Officer. Other volunteers may be asked to complete the “CVLSC Self-Declaration Safeguarding Form” in “CVLSC Safeguarding Guidance and Procedures”). The Club Welfare Officer and those regularly instructing, coaching or supervising young people may also be asked to apply for an Enhanced Criminal Records Disclosure, with Barred List check if appropriate.

Good Practice

All members of the Club should follow the Good Practice Guidelines (see page 3) and agree to abide by the Code of Conduct (see page 4) and the RYA Racing Charter contained in the Racing Rules of Sailing. Those working or volunteering with young people should be aware of the guidance on recognising abuse (see Appendix A of CVLSC Safeguarding Guidance and Procedures).

Individuals leading coaching or training should read the full document (CVLSC Safeguarding Guidance and Procedures)

It is advised that when children are changing before or after junior/youth training or racing, adults are accompanied by another adult.

The Club will seek written consent from parents/carers before taking photos or video of a child at an event or training session or publishing such images. Parents and spectators should be prepared to identify themselves if requested and state their purpose for photography/filming. If the Club publishes images of children, no identifying information other than names will be included. Any concerns about inappropriate or intrusive photography or the inappropriate use of images should be reported to the Club Welfare Officer.

Concerns

Anyone who is concerned about a young member's or participant's welfare, either outside the sport or within the Club, should inform the Club Welfare Officer immediately, in strict confidence. The Club Welfare Officer will follow the procedures outlined in the CVLSC Safeguarding Guidance and Procedures

Any member of the Club failing to comply with the Safeguarding Policy or any relevant Codes of Conduct may be subject to disciplinary action under Club Rule 3.19.

Good Practice Guide for Instructors, Coaches and Volunteers

This guide only covers the essential points of good practice when working with children and young people. You should also read the organisation's Child Protection Policy and Procedures which are available for reference at all times.

- Avoid spending any significant time working with children in isolation
- Do not take children alone in a car, however short the journey
- Do not take children to your home as part of your organisation's activity
- Where any of these are unavoidable, ensure that they only occur with the full knowledge and consent of someone in charge of the organisation or the child's parents
- Design training programmes that are within the ability of the individual child
- If a child is having difficulty with a wetsuit or buoyancy aid, ask them to ask a friend to help if at all possible
- If you do have to help a child, make sure you are in full view of others, preferably another adult
- Restrict communications with young people via mobile phone, e-mail or social media to group communications about organisational matters. If it's essential to send an individual message, copy it to the child's parent or carer.

You should never:

- engage in rough, physical or sexually provocative games
- allow or engage in inappropriate touching of any form
- allow children to use inappropriate language unchallenged, or use such language yourself when with children
- make sexually suggestive comments to a child, even in fun
- fail to respond to an allegation made by a child; always act
- do things of a personal nature that children can do for themselves.

It may sometimes be necessary to do things of a personal nature for children, particularly if they are very young or disabled. These tasks should only be carried out with the full understanding and consent of the child (where possible) and their parents/carers. In an emergency situation which requires this type of help, parents should be fully informed. In such situations it is important to ensure that any adult present is sensitive to the child and undertakes personal care tasks with the utmost discretion.
